

What to do if there is a power cut

Easy
Read

Easy Read

This is an Easy Read version of some information. It may not include all of the information but it will tell you about the important parts.

This Easy Read booklet uses easier words and pictures. Some people may still want help to read it.

Some words are in bold - this means the writing is thicker and darker. These are important words in the booklet.

Sometimes if a bold word is hard to understand, we will explain what it means.

Blue and underlined words show links to websites and email addresses. You can click on these links on a computer.

About this booklet

This booklet is from Northern Powergrid.

We provide electricity to homes and businesses in the North of England.

Sometimes your home may suddenly stop getting electricity for a short time.

This is called a power cut.

We will work to fix the power cut as quickly as possible.

This booklet will tell you what to do if there is a power cut.

Power cuts

Before a power cut

You can be ready for a power cut by:

- Having a plan for what you will do if there is ever a longer power cut, like staying with a family member.

- Saving the number 105 into your phone.

You can use this number to report a power cut.

- Bookmarking our power cut map on your phone.

You can report a power cut and get updates on your phone here.

If you do not know how to save the number or bookmark the map, you could ask someone to help you.

You can also be ready by:

- Making sure your mobile phone is always charged.

- Making a pack of important items that you may need, like:

- A charged power bank.

A power bank is an item that charges your phone.

- A torch with spare batteries.

- A radio that uses batteries, so that you can get news and information about the weather.

Hearing the radio may also keep you company.

- Items that will keep you warm when there is no electricity, like blankets or a jacket.

You should keep your pack of important items in a place where you can easily get it.

During a power cut

When a power cut happens you should tell us. You can do this by:

- Calling 105 if you are not part of our Priority Services Membership.

We will explain more about our Priority Services Membership later in the booklet.

- Calling 0800 169 2996 if you are part of our Priority Services Membership.

- Reporting it on our website - you can do this by typing in your postcode and 'pressing report a power cut' on this website:
www.northernpowergrid.com/power-cuts-map

You can also tell us when a power cut happens by messaging 0191 687 2254 on WhatsApp.

During a power cut, you should:

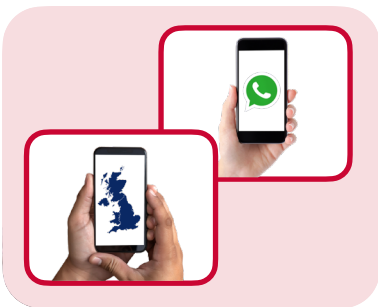

- Leave a light switched on so that you know when the power cut has ended.

You will know the power cut has ended because the light will turn on.

- Keep yourself safe and call 999 if you are in danger.

- Get updates by checking our power cut map or by the text messages we will send to your phone.

After a power cut

After a power cut, you should reset your clocks and any timer controls.

Timer controls turn things on or off at certain times, like your boiler or lights.

Extra support

Some people may need extra support during a power cut.

If you need extra support, you can join our Priority Services Membership.

It is free to join and does not cost any money after you have joined.

With your free Priority Services Membership, we can help you with things like hot meals or transport to a friend or family member's home.

To find out more about our Priority Services Membership, you can contact our membership team by going to www.northernpowergrid.com/care

You can also contact our membership team by:

- Calling 0800 169 2996

- Calling 0800 028 9507 if you use a text phone.

- Calling 18001 0800 169 2996 if you use text relay.

- Calling 0800 389 8204 if you do not speak English very well.
