What you had to tell us

We asked... "Can you tell us why you gave that response?"

I have always been listened to and been encouraged to make choices on my health care. I've only been here a short time but my care has been second to none.

Since joining the practice a few weeks ago, I cannot believe how nice the staff all are, especially Christina. Nothing is to much trouble. I don't feel as if I'm a problem. the surgery is very efficient and thorough and appointment times are great.
