Book your blood test online

Information for patients

From 21 November 2019, the Royal Free Hospital, part of the Royal Free London NHS Foundation Trust, adult blood test service will be by appointment. This leaflet sets out how you can book a blood test at the Royal Free Hospital.

How can I book a blood test?

You can book your blood test online from 1 November 2019, for appointments on and after 21 November 2019. This is a free booking service.

Please follow the steps below to book your test online:

1. Go to: www.royalfree.nhs.uk/adult-blood-tests and click on the link to the booking system

2. Select your appointment type.

3. Choose the time you would like to come in.

4. Register your details (please note that you will only have to do this the first time you book a blood test and you can use the same log-in details if you need to book another test later).

What do I do if I cannot book my blood test online?

If you are unable to book your blood test online, please call the trust to make your appointment on: 020 7443 9757 (Monday to Friday, 8am to 5pm). Normal call charges will apply.

What are the opening hours for the blood testing service?

The opening times remain as:

- 7.30am to 5.30pm, Monday to Friday
- 8am to 1pm, Saturdays

Other blood test services at the Royal Free London

We also provide blood test services at Barnet Hospital and Chase Farm Hospital. For more information on how to book an appointment at one of these locations, please visit our website: www.royalfree.nhs.uk/bloodtests
