Privacy Notice - Direct Care - Emergencies

There are occasions when intervention is necessary in order to save or protect a patient's life or to prevent them from serious immediate harm, for instance during a collapse or diabetic coma or serious injury or accident. In many of these circumstances the patient may be unconscious or too ill to communicate. In these circumstances we have an overriding duty to try to protect and treat the patient. If necessary we will share your information and possibly sensitive confidential information with other emergency healthcare services, the police or fire brigade, so that you can receive the best treatment.

The law acknowledges this and provides supporting legal justifications.

Individuals have the right to make pre-determined decisions about the type and extend of care they will receive should they fall ill in the future; these are known as "Advance Directives". If logged in your records these will be honoured despite the observations in the first paragraph.

to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situation the patient is unable to provide consent.         Consent Basis – Implied Consent         Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record         4) Lawful basis for         processing         This is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification;         Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And         Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"         Or alternatively London SE3 0EN         https://www.manorbrookmedicalcentre.co.uk/         2) Data Protection Officer         contact details       gpdpo@selondonics.nhs.uk         3) Purpose of the processing       Doctors have a professional responsibility to share data in emergencie to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situation the patient is unable to provide consent.         Consent Basis – Implied Consent       Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record         4) Lawful basis for       This is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification;         processing       Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And       Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"         Or alternatively       Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the consent of the social care or treatment or the consent of the social care or treatment or the consent of the social care or treatment or the consent of the provision of health or social care or treatment or the consent of the provision of health or social care or treatment or the consent or	1) Controller contact details	Manor Brook Medical Centre https://www.manorbrookmedicalcentre.co.uk/         2) Data Protection Officer       gpdpo@selondonics.nhs.uk         3) Purpose of the processing       Doctors have a professional responsibility to share data in emergencies to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situation the patient is unable to provide consent.         Consent Basis – Implied Consent       Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record         4) Lawful basis for       This is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification;         processing       Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And       Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"         Or alternatively       Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provi		117 Brook Lane
2) Data Protection Officer       gpdpo@selondonics.nhs.uk         3) Purpose of the processing       Doctors have a professional responsibility to share data in emergencie to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situation the patient is unable to provide consent.         Consent Basis – Implied Consent       Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record         4) Lawful basis for       This is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification;         processing       Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And       Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"         Or alternatively       Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the data subject or of another natural person of health or social care or treatment or the data diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the data diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the data diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the data diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the data data data diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or the data data data data data data data dat		London SE3 0EN contact detailsgpdpo@selondonics.nhs.uk3) Purpose of the processingDoctors have a professional responsibility to share data in emergencies to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situation the patient is unable to provide consent. Consent Basis – Implied Consent Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record4) Lawful basis for processingThis is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification; Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"AndArticle 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"Or alternativelyArticle 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of		https://www.manorbrookmedicalcentre.co.uk/
3) Purpose of the processing       Doctors have a professional responsibility to share data in emergencie to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situation the patient is unable to provide consent.         Consent Basis – Implied Consent       Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record         4) Lawful basis for       This is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification;         processing       Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And       Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"         Or alternatively       Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or protect data and provision of health or social care or treatment or protect data data provision of health or social care or treatment or protect data data provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of provisio	2) Data Protection Officer
to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situation the patient is unable to provide consent. Consent Basis – Implied Consent Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record4) Lawful basis for processingThis is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification; Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person" And Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent" Or alternatively Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of	contact details	gpdpo@selondonics.nhs.uk to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situation the patient is unable to provide consent. Consent Basis – Implied Consent Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record4) Lawful basis for processingThis is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification; Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person" And Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent" Or alternatively Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of
to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situation the patient is unable to provide consent. Consent Basis – Implied Consent Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record4) Lawful basis for processingThis is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification; Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person" And Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent" Or alternatively Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of the patient is unable to provide consent.         Consent Basis – Implied Consent         Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record         4) Lawful basis for         processing         Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And         Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And         Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"         Or alternatively         Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of the medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of the model.	3) Purpose of the processing	Doctors have a professional responsibility to share data in emergencies Consent Basis – Implied Consent Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record4) Lawful basis for processingThis is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification; Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"AndAndArticle 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"Or alternativelyArticle 9(2)(c) "processary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of		to protect their patients or other persons. Often in emergency situations
Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record         4) Lawful basis for       This is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification;         processing       Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And       Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"         Or alternatively       Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or provision of health or social care o		the patient is unable to provide consent.
4) Lawful basis for       This is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification;         processing       Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And       Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"         Or alternatively       Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or provisi		Consent Basis – Implied Consent processing       Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"         And       Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"         Or alternatively       Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment or protect and the provision of health or social care or treatment or protect data provision of health or social care or treatment or protect data provision of health or social care or treatment or protect data provision of health or social care or treatment or protect data provision of health or social care or treatment or protect data protect or protect data provision of health or social care or treatment or protect data protect or protect pr		Data Access – Extraction of information from the GP record <ul> <li>Article 6(1)(d) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person"</li> <li>And</li> <li>Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"</li> <li>Or alternatively</li> <li>Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupatio medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of the second second</li></ul>	4) Lawful basis for	This is a Direct Care purpose. There is a specific legal justification;
data subject or of another natural person"AndArticle 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent"Or alternativelyArticle 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of	processing	Article 6(1)(d) "processing is percessed to protect the vital interests of the
And Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent" Or alternatively Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent" Or alternatively Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent" Or alternatively Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of		And
data subject or of another natural person where the data subject is physically or legally incapable of giving consent" Or alternatively Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of		Article 9(2)(c) "processing is necessary to protect the vital interests of the physically or legally incapable of giving consent" Or alternatively Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of Or alternatively Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment of Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupation medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment o
medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment o		Or alternatively
medicine for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee, medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment o		Article 9(2)(h) 'necessary for the purposes of preventative or occupational medical diagnosis, the provision of health or social care or treatment o

Privacy Notice - Direct Care - Emergencies

-
	We will also recognise your rights established under UK case law collectively known as the "Common Law Duty of Confidentiality"
5) Recipient or categories of	The data will be shared with healthcare professionals and other workers recipients of the shared data	in emergency and out of hours services and at local hospitals, diagnostic and treatment centres.
6) Rights to object	You have the right under Article 21 of the UK GDPR to object to your personal information being processed. Please contact the Practice if you wish to object to the processing of your data. You should be aware that this is a right to raise an objection which is not the same as having an absolute right to have your wishes granted in every circumstance.
	You also have the right to have an "Advance Directive" placed in your records and brought to the attention of relevant healthcare workers or staff.
7) Right to access and	You have the right to access the data that is being shared and have any correct	inaccuracies corrected. There is no right to have accurate medical records deleted except when ordered by a court of Law. If we share or process your data in an emergency when you have not been able to consent, we will notify you at the earliest opportunity.
8) Retention period	The data will be retained in line with the law and national guidance
9) Right to Complain.	You have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, you can use this link https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/data-protection-complaints/ or calling their helpline Tel: 0303 123 1113 (local rate) or 01625 545 745 (national rate)
	There are National Offices for Scotland, Northern Ireland and Wales, (see ICO website)

* "Common Law Duty of Confidentiality", common law is not written out in one document like an Act of Parliament. It is a form of law based on previous court cases decided by judges; hence, it is also referred to as 'judge-made' or case law. The law is applied by reference to those previous cases, so common law is also said to be based on precedent.

The general position is that if information is given in circumstances where it is expected that a duty of confidence applies, that information cannot normally be disclosed without the information provider's consent.

In practice, this means that all patient information, whether held on paper, computer, visually or audio recorded, or held in the memory of the professional, must not normally be disclosed without the consent of the patient. It is irrelevant how old the patient is or what the state of their mental health is; the duty still applies.

Privacy Notice - Direct Care - Emergencies

Three circumstances making disclosure of confidential information lawful are:

- where the individual to whom the information relates has consented;
- where disclosure is in the public interest; and
- where there is a legal duty to do so, for example a court order.