

Privacy Notice – Litigations & Claims

Plain English explanation

This Practice is legally obliged to investigate any litigation or claims brought against them, and this will require us to access, process and hold some your personal identifiable data. This may include your name, address, date of birth and medical condition and other data we may hold. The data this Practice will need to process will depend on the type of litigation or claim received.

This NHS Litigation Authority operates a scheme which this Practice pays an annual contribution for, and in return the NHS Litigation Authority supports the settlement of any clinical negligence claims the Practice receives.
