Are you pregnant?

Your GP practice is helping maternity services across Birmingham with a new self referral process.

If you have had a positive pregnancy test, please scan the QR code below where you can make your own online self-referral

https://www.badgernotes.net/SelfReferral/CareLocation/BUMP

This is a secure link and the information will go to our maternity teams who will make you an appointment with a community midwife.

To complete the form you will need to know your:

- NHS number (please ask your GP practice for this)
- Registered GP practice
- Last menstrual period date
