THE PROJECT

About Us

IMM is a music charity that brings together generations through innovative music projects, training and research to combat issues such as loneliness, ageism and lack of community cohesion.

We bring together groups such as schools, care homes, community centres through our co-created programmes and we need your help and input to grow your community.

The Project

We are looking for volunteers from the Withington & Old Moat area, to take part in a 6 week music and movement project, supported by IMM staff. Whether you're a university student, work in the area or are a local resident, it's a great way to meet new people and gain valuable skills.

The project will be co-designed with participants, to ensure we meet the needs of the community. Full training is provided, so no previous experience necessary!
