Apologies: Jon Leigh, David Williams, Mrs Oldham, Patricia Baldwin

Welcome & Introductions: Adele thanked everyone for coming.

Minutes: Read and approved

Update re garden rota/ porch/ bench: Thank you to Diane & Denise for joining the rota regarding keeping the garden tidy. People have commented on the tidy garden. Bench & Porch put on hold until practice meeting in May. Ann also updated us re possible pedestrian crossing. They are looking into widening pavement, crossing not possible as too many junctions.

HEALTH DAY- Saturday 23rd March at United Reformed Church, at the corner of Commercial Road and A6 10.30-12.30. All organisations now booked.

Re advertising Stockport Radio will do it for free. Stockport Times very expensive. Ann will contact local churches to distribute information. Logo discussed suggested we use a circle of people as it was used previously. Volunteers were asked for re delivery of leaflets.

‘SPRING INTO ACTION’ was suggested by Marie re heading.

Dr Aldabbagh offered to do lung function tests. Meeting suggested on Monday 4th March at 7pm for distribution of leaflets and to finalise details for Health Day. Adele to contact Sure Start near the library. Dr. Deering suggested further contacts.

Speakers for future Meetings: Dr Aldabbagh would approach another PRG re possible speaker

A.O.B. Karen Lahan gave us information on transport re elderly or disabled people needing transport to appointments via Stockport Care Scheme.

Next Meeting Wednesday 24th April 7pm. ALL WELCOME, PLEASE COME.
