A carer is someone who provides unpaid care or support to a partner, child, family member, friend or neighbour who cannot manage without your help, due to illness or a disability. Many people who care for someone do not necessarily see themselves as carers.

You could be a:

- mother or father
- son or daughter
- child or young person
- husband, wife or partner
- friend or neighbour

You can be considered a carer if you help someone with one or more of the following:

- washing and dressing
- taking medication
- cleaning and laundry
- shopping or taking people to appointments
- providing lifts and arranging transport
- keeping someone company
