The Complaint Process

Talk to us

Every patient has the right to make a complaint about the treatment or care they have received at Meon Health Practice.

We understand that we may not always get everything right and by telling us about the problem you have encountered, we will be able to improve our services and patient experience.

How to raise a concern or complaint

Most complaints can be resolved at a local level and can be made in the following ways:

1. Completing a Formal Complaints Form, available from reception.
2. By letter to:

Complaints c/o The Highlands
Practice, 102 Highlands, Fareham,
PO15 6JF

Further information can be obtained by calling our Patient Service Advisors on 01329 845777. Please note we do not take complaints over the phone.

If for any reason you do not want to speak to a member of our staff, then you can request the NHS South East Complaints Hub investigate your complaint. They will contact us on your behalf:

South East Complaints Hub

Aldershot Centre for Health
Hospital Hill
Aldershot
Hampshire
GU11 1AY
Phone: 0300 561 0290
Email: Frimleyicb.southeastcomplaints@nhs.net

A complaint can be made verbally in person or in writing either by letter or by using our complaints form.

Time frames for complaints

The time constraint on bringing a complaint is 12 months from the occurrence giving rise to the complaint, or 12 months from the time you become aware of the matter about which you wish to complain.

The complaints manager will acknowledge all complaints within three business days.

We will aim to investigate and provide you with the findings as soon as we can and will provide regular updates regarding the investigation of your complaint.

Investigating complaints

Meon Health Practice will investigate all complaints effectively and in conjunction with extant legislation and guidance.

Confidentiality

Meon Health Practice will ensure that all complaints are investigated with the utmost confidentiality and any documents are held separately from the patient's healthcare record.

Third party complaints

Meon Health Practice allows a third party to make a complaint on behalf of a patient. The patient must provide consent for them to do so. A Third-Party Patient Complaint Form is available from reception.

Final response

Meon Health Practice will issue a final formal response to all complainants within twenty-eight working days, which will provide full details and the outcome of the complaint.
