

RETIREMENT

Dr Robert Jenkins

Dear Patients

I regret to inform you I will be retiring on 30th June 2023 and say farewell to all the familial faces I have known over the years. It has been a pleasure.

I have spent over 40 years in the NHS and have experienced many changes. Although current circumstances are very challenging I am confident I am leaving you in the hands of superb, diligent clinicians and an excellent team of colleagues at Lilyville who will continue to offer you the highest standard of care they are able to provide.
