

Nail Cutting Services

The Whittington Health Podiatry Department does not see people to cut their toenails unless they meet the criteria for NHS Podiatry. Toenail cutting is part of personal care, so you may cut them yourself or someone else may cut them for you if you cannot. Toenails can also be cut by private Podiatry, Chiropody, Foot Health Practitioners, Beauty Therapists and Nail Salons.

Here is a list of local providers you may wish to use.

We cannot recommend a particular service and do not accept responsibility for the service provided.

Please note that these services may charge.
