

Whether mentally, physically or socially wounded we support the most in need.

Working in collaboration with our beneficiaries and partners, we shape bespoke employment, mental health and care coordination programmes that give ex-service personnel and their families, the emotional and practical support they need, every step of the way.

Why? Because those who served, deserve.

WWTW helped me to find ways to manage my trauma. Now, at long last, I'm in a much better, stronger and happier place."

WWTW beneficiary and Army veteran, Martin.

WHAT WE DO

EMPLOYMENT

WWTW's Employment Programme helps to secure positive employment outcomes for unemployed veterans. We work with veterans to understand the barriers to employment and also the type of work they want.

Our Employment Advisors provide a wide range of support to help them secure a meaningful, sustainable role and are embedded in the community and in NHS regional veteran mental health teams.

MENTAL HEALTH

Head Start, our mental health programme, is coordinated with NHS mental health services. We provide 1-2-1 therapy for ex-service personnel with mild to moderately severe mental health difficulties.

CARE COORDINATION

We provide dedicated, 1-2-1 welfare support for those with complex and multiple needs. We work with local partners to improve the care services on offer to veterans, their families and carers.
