

To save the NHS money we will be reviewing our patients who are prescribed paracetamol.

Those patients taking this medication for self-limiting (i.e. not long term) conditions will be asked to buy their own paracetamol instead.

Paracetamol can be bought inexpensively from most supermarkets.