

Heidi Health GP Consults

We use an automated scribe system called Heidi. This system automatically generates your consultation notes and ensures their accuracy.

No personal identifiable information is saved to Heidi and the consultation notes generated are transferred to your medical notes.

If you do not want your clinician to use Heidi please mention this at the start of your consultation.